

JOHN CLANCY

John Clancy is an award winning, Sydney based sommelier who has collaborated with many renowned chefs to create wine lists and wine pairings over a number of different cuisines.

A passion for exploring different grape varieties, terroirs and winemaking techniques has led to comprehensive travel to many of the great wine regions, establishing a reputation as a trusted expert in the world of wine.

Working in some top hotels in London, Kuala Lumpur and the Maldives has further helped develop service skills and exposure to different cooking styles.

The opportunity of working with Ajoy and Balaji is an exciting challenge which will offer some wonderful taste sensations.

These degustation dinners will be a journey of discovery as we pair some superb local and imported wines with the excellent dishes that make up this delightful menu.
